The Prophet of Allah (blessings of Allah be upon him and his family) said:

“Jibr‘il came to me after Salat al-Zuhr accompanied by 70,000 Angels and said (to me), ‘O’ Muhammad! Surely your Lord has conveyed His greetings to you and has granted you two gifts and He has not given either of these two gifts to any Prophet before you.’ The Prophet replied, ‘What are these two gifts?’ Jibr‘il replied, ‘The Witr Salah which is two Rak‘at (Salat al-Witr which is one Rak‘at and Salat al-Sha‘r which is two Rak‘at) and the second gift which is the five daily Salah in Jama‘at.’ I said to Jibr‘il, ‘And what reward is there for my Ummah in the Salat al-Jama‘at?’ Jibr‘il replied, ‘O’ Muhammad! If there are two people, then Allah will record the reward for each Rak‘at is being equal to 150 Rak‘at of Salah. If there are three people, then Allah will record the reward for each Rak‘at is being equal to 600 Rak‘at of Salah. If there are four people, then Allah will record the reward for each Rak‘at is being equal to 1200 Rak‘at of Salah. If there are five people, then Allah will record the reward for each Rak‘at is being equal to 2400 Rak‘at of Salah. If there are six people, then Allah will record the reward for each Rak‘at is being equal to 4800 Rak‘at of Salah. If there are seven people, then Allah will record the reward for each Rak‘at is being equal to 9600 Rak‘at of Salah. If there are eight people, then Allah will record the reward for each Rak‘at is being equal to 19,200 Rak‘at of Salah. If there are nine people, then Allah will record the reward for each Rak‘at is being equal to 37,400 Rak‘at of Salah. If there are ten people, then Allah will record the reward for each Rak‘at is being equal to 72,800 Rak‘at of Salah. If there are more than ten people in the Jama‘at, then if all of the rivers in the Heavens and the Earth were to be changed into ink and all the trees were to be changed into pens and all of the Jinn and Mankind along with the Angels were to try to record the reward (for one Rak‘at) they would not be able to record it. O’ Muhammad! The Takbir that the believers perform with the Imam (of the Salat) is better than 60,000 Hajj and ‘Umrah and better than the world and all that is contained within it 70,000 times over. The one Rak‘at that the believers pray with the Imam is better than 100,000 dinar of charity given to the poor people. The Sajdah that the believers perform with the Imam in Jama‘at is better than freeing 1,000 slaves.’”

Ponder upon this point: If you were to pray just one 2 Rak‘at Salat in Jama‘at with 10 people just ONE TIME, this would be equivalent to performing the Salat of 23½ years (17 Rak‘at per day x 365 days in one year x 23½ years = ≈145,600)!!
