In his book of Miqbās al-Maṣābīḥ, `Allāmah al-Majlisī says: Imam al-Ṣādiq (`a) is reported through valid chains of authority to have said: There are three hours at night and three others at day at which Allah, the Almighty and Majestic, glorifies Himself. The three hours of days begin when the sun in the east side is in the same rising in the afternoon on the other (west) side; that is at early forenoon. The three hours of night begin at the last third of night up to dawn. Any servant glorifies Allah, the Almighty and Majestic, at these hours with full heart presence, Almighty Allah will settle his needs, and if he is unhappy (because of sinning), I expect that he will be made happy.

It is most suitable to say the following words of glorification at these hours:

You are Allah; there is no god save
You, the Lord of the Worlds.

anta allāhu lā ilāha illā anta rabbu
al`ālamīna

أَنْتَ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ رَبُّ
