In his book of Miqbās al-Maṣābiḥ, `Allāmah al-Majlisī says: Imam al-Ṣādiq (´a) is reported through valid chains of authority to have said: There are three hours at night and three others at day at which Allah, the Almighty and Majestic, glorifies Himself. The three hours of days begin when the sun in the east side is in the same rising in the afternoon on the other (west) side; that is at early forenoon. The three hours of night begin at the last third of night up to dawn. Any servant glorifies Allah, the Almighty and Majestic, at these hours with full heart presence, Almighty Allah will settle his needs, and if he is unhappy (because of sinning), I expect that he will be made happy.

It is most suitable to say the following words of glorification at these hours:

You are Allah; there is no god save You, the Lord of the Worlds.

You are Allah; there is no god save You, the All-beneficent, the All-merciful.

You are Allah; there is no god save You, the All-High, the All-great.

You are Allah; there is no god save You, the All-forgiving, the All-merciful.

You are Allah; there is no god save You, the All-Wise.

You are Allah; there is no god save You, from You is the beginning of all things and to You do all things return.

You are Allah; there is no god save You, You have been always existent and You will always be existent.

You are Allah; there is no god save You, the Creator of good and evil.
