He should call his family members and entrust them to Allah. When he leaves the house, he should walk in small steps with dignity and recite La ilaaha illallaah wallaaho akbar a lot and send lots of salutations to Holy Prophet (s.a.w.a.) and his family (a.s.).
- (2) Imam Sadiq (a.s.) has mentioned that if one goes to visit Imam Husayn (a.s.), he should go while his hair is unkempt and he is dishelved and in a state of sorrow and grief and also hungry and thirsty because the holy Imam (a.s.) was martyred in this very state. He should perform ziyarat, seek his desires and return home and should not make Karbala his permanent abode.
